Overview: Last penthouse for sale, stunning sea views, with solarium, south facing. This new development has an idyllic location, next to the Cabopino golf course in Marbella and a short distance from the privileged and protected dunes and the Cabopino marina. All of this provides you with the peace of mind you would want for your home. In addition, it allows you to enjoy more than 70 golf courses along the Costa del Sol, with a magnificent structure and an ideal climate, as well as international schools, health centers and shopping centers. Just 15 minutes away is the vibrant and sophisticated city of Marbella, with everything you can imagine to enjoy the authentic Mediterranean lifestyle. It has been designed to offer you the best features of a luxury resort lifestyle within your new home. The common areas and the interiors of the homes combine the highest levels of design and comfort to create a highly attractive product that is difficult to match in the area. Everything at Artola is designed to make the most of exceptionally large spaces. The living room and kitchen are combined in a single space with porcelain flooring, and the large windows in the bedrooms and living areas allow natural light to flood in at any time of day. The spectacular terraces are perfect for relaxing with family and friends. Kitchens are integrated into the main space and feature leading brands, quartz countertops, built-in appliances and concealed LED lighting to add warmth and sophistication. In the bathrooms, elegant large-format porcelain tiles have been selected with a guaranteed quality design. And all this without forgetting the comfort, functionality, practicality and commitment to low consumption sustainability standards that characterize all Artola Homes. Unofficially considered the capital of the western Costa del Sol, Marbella undoubtedly has enough ingredients to be one of the most important tourist centers in Spain. Its privileged situation, at the foot of Sierra Blanca, on the coast, provides it with excellent climatic conditions as well as great scenic beauty.
