Overview: Investment opportunity! Unique and exceptionally spacious three-storey corner townhouse, superbly located just steps from the main square of the charming whitewashed village of Monda. Originally used as the village's barracks headquarters many years ago, this impressive property is steeped in history and exudes authentic Andalusian charm throughout. Boasting a total built size of 413m², the property also features a generous and private 136m² courtyard at the rear, offering endless possibilities for creating a beautiful outdoor oasis. The accommodation is distributed over three floors, ground, first, and second, with both the ground and first floors enjoying lovely high ceilings that enhance the sense of space and character. This traditional townhouse offers enormous potential. With its size, layout, and prime central location, it could be transformed into a spacious family residence, a boutique B&B, or a stunning blend of both. It is important to note that the property requires a complete refurbishment, and in our professional opinion, buyers should anticipate a substantial investment of approximately 350.000 Euros to reach its full potential. A rare opportunity in the heart of Monda, ideal for those seeking a special project with charm, history, and outstanding possibilities. Please note that the property does not have a private parking facility. However, on-street parking is available throughout the village, subject to availability.
